What is Geering Up?

UBC Geering Up Engineering Outreach is a student focused organization dedicated to promoting Science, Technology, Engineering, Art and Math (STEAM) concepts to the children and youth of British Columbia through fun, innovative, and hands-on experiments and projects. Geering Up recognizes that there are systemic barriers that prevent many people from pursuing careers in STEAM. Thus, Geering Up strives to reach all children and youth, regardless of gender, ethnicity, culture, or socio-economic status. Over the past 29 years, Geering Up has reached over 150,000 youth through summer camps, in-school workshops, community outreach trips, clubs, and more. On UBC's Okanagan Campus, Geering Up has operated for 9 years, bringing Geering Up's exciting programming to the Okanagan region. More information about Geering Up is available on our website

What would you do in this role?

Our camp instructors are key pieces to our Okanagan team and, with a co-instructor, lead week-long STEAM day-camps. Under the guidance of the Kelowna Student Assistants, Coordinator, and Manager, Instructors are responsible to:

- With a teaching partner, deliver engaging STEAM curriculum to a variety of grade 1-12 participants
- Act as an Instructor and role model at camps and other associated programs
- Follow safety and risk management policy to ensure participants are safe and having fun
- Supervise, and provide guidance to volunteers
- Complete all evaluations and reports in a timely manner
- Assist in prep tasks at the start and end of each day
- Refine engaging curriculum for a wide age-range
- Perform other duties, as requested by supervisors
- Instructors may be asked to participate in outreach trips around the Okanagan
